

HOMOPHONES

For each statement, choose the correct word from each pair of homophones to fill in the gaps.

knight / night

son / sun

cereal / serial

aisle / isle

wait / weight

berry / bury cent / scent

meet / meat

- a This is my Liam. He's 8 years old.
- b Our dog likes to its bones in the garden.
- c What did you do last ?
- d The police are looking for a attacker.
- e I didn't have a when I arrived in the country.
- f He lost some when he stopped eating sugar.
- g The tale is about a who fell in love with a princess.
- h I wish I lived on a Caribbean .
- i The room was filled with the of roses.
- j She usually has a bowl of for breakfast.
- k Don't look directly at the . It'll hurt your eyes.
- l Please, here. The doctor will see you in a minute.
- m Let's after work for a coffee.
- n Groceries are in eight.
- o I want to try this new mixed pie recipe.
- p He's a vegetarian. He doesn't eat any .

Homophone

Read each sentence carefully. Circle the correct homophone that best fits the sentence.

- I saw a cute little (bare / bear) at the zoo.
- We have to (write / right) a story for school.
- The (sun / son) is shining brightly in the sky.
- My mom made a delicious (flour / flower) cake.
- She (threw / through) the ball across the field.
- We saw a (deer / dear) in the forest.
- Please (pour / pore) some juice into my cup.
- Dad will (meet / meat) us at the restaurant.
- I love the (sea / see) when we go to the beach.
- The rabbit ran into its (hole / whole).
- I bought a new (pair / pear) of shoes.
- My teacher gave me a (grate / great) idea for my project.
- We walked down the long (road / rode) to school.
- Can you (hear / here) the birds singing?
- The puppy wagged (its / it's) tail happily.

Read & Replace

Read the story carefully. Some words are missing, and you must replace them with the correct homophone from the word bank. Write your answers in the blanks.

Word Bank: • bear • fare • heel • scent • weak • bare • fair • heal • sent • week

The Mystery Package

One cold winter morning, a package was delivered to my house. My mom said it had been (1) _____ by my Aunt Lisa from another state. I was excited to open it, but she told me to be (2) _____ and handle it gently.

Inside, I found a warm sweater, a stuffed (3) _____, and a tiny bottle with a lovely (4) _____. The sweater was perfect because I had been feeling a bit (5) _____ from the chilly weather.

Later that day, my dad took me to the county (6) _____, where we played games and won prizes. He paid the bus (7) _____ so we could get there. My mom always tells me to wear comfortable shoes because walking a lot can hurt my (8) _____.

Before going to bed, I wrote a thank-you note to Aunt Lisa and (9) _____ it in the mail. I was so happy with my gifts and excited to wear my new sweater all (10) _____ long!