

“ Unseen Passage ”

The Clever Rabbit

Once upon a time, in a deep forest, there lived a clever rabbit. The rabbit was small but very smart. One day, a hungry lion came to the forest. He wanted to eat the animals living there. The animals were scared and did not know what to do. The rabbit thought of a plan. He went to the lion and said, "Oh mighty lion, there is another lion in the forest who is stronger than you!" The lion became very angry and asked, "Where is he?"

The rabbit took the lion to a deep well and said, "Look inside!" The lion saw his own reflection in the water and thought it was another lion. He roared loudly, and his reflection roared back. In anger, the lion jumped into the well and could not come out. The clever rabbit saved all the animals in the forest!

Questions:

- Where did the clever rabbit live?

.....

.....

- What did the lion want to do?

.....

.....

- How did the rabbit trick the lion?

.....

.....

- Where did the lion see his reflection?

.....

.....

- What is the moral of the story?

.....

.....

“ Unseen Passage ”

The Kind Farmer

Ravi was a kind farmer who lived in a small village. He had a big farm where he grew fruits and vegetables. Every morning, he went to the farm to take care of the plants. He watered them, removed the weeds, and made sure they got enough sunlight.

One day, Ravi saw a little bird with a broken wing in his field. The bird had fallen from its nest. Ravi gently picked it up and took it home. He made a small bed for the bird and fed it grains every day. Slowly, the bird's wing healed, and it became strong again.

One morning, Ravi took the bird outside, and it flew happily into the sky. The bird chirped loudly as if saying "Thank you!" Ravi smiled, feeling happy that he had helped the little bird.

Questions:

- Where did Ravi live?

.....

.....

- What did Ravi grow on his farm?

.....

.....

- What did Ravi find in his field one day?

.....

.....

- How did Ravi help the little bird?

.....

.....

- What is the moral of the story?

.....

.....